First Option Signed

Santa Rosa Family 1st

First option for purchase in the National Space and Aeronautics Administration lunar landing test site in Hancock County was signed with the Army Corps of Engineers here Thursday morning, less than 24 hours after the real estate project office commenced negotiations in the field.

The first landowners to reach an agreement with the government and sign the necessary papers were Conley Carver and his wife, Mildred Blackwell Carver, of Santa Rosa. They have 1.90 acres of land with a large frame house and several smaller buildings on the Logtown-Flatop Road about three miles east of Santa Rosa. The couple live there with their five children. He has been a member of a tugboat crew.

Purchase price was not disclosed but O. B. Moore, real estate office project manager, said the Carvers indicated they were well pleased. Their future plans were not known. Moore said at least half a dozen other landowners in the area had signed option papers by Tuesday and negotiations are progressing daily.

Every effort will be made to expedite payments to landowners who have signed agreements with the government as well as those who sign in the future, Moore said. He explained, however, that in some cases there will be unavoidable delays because of property title conditions which will require curative work such as the obtaining of quitclaim deeds, affidavits, and other legal documents.

The government's schedule provides for outright acquisition of title to the construction area by July 31. Almost 200 individual tracts of land — or owner-ships are involved in the construction area. The easement area, where more than 2,500 tracts are involved, is scheduled for acquisition by the middle of 1964.

Meanwhile the Senate appropriations committee in Washington last week approved an amendment to provide $71 million for land acquisition in the Hancock test site and at Cape Canaveral, Fla., which was offered by Sen. John Stennis and Sen. Spessard Holland of Florida. The money had been included in the administration budget for NASA operations this year but was not in the

134th RELEASE SEEN

President Kennedy's announcement last week that all National Guardsmen and Reservists called to active duty last fall will, barring a serious change in the world situation, be released in August is expected to apply to members of the 134th Transportation Co. and other guardsmen from Bay St. Louis.

Kennedy made it clear that the prospective release of the reservists and guardsmen is not the result of a lessening in world dangers, but the increasing build-up in the nation's armed might. They still will have to be prepared to be called back at any time the need arises. The Army has informed Congress that the men will be released before midnight August 31.

STRIKE FELT HERE

Heitzmann to Get Opinion

Pair Protest Plan On Trailer Taxation

Proposed methods of taxing trailers bringing construction trailers into the county in connection with the national space program drew protests before the board of supervisors Monday.

Episcopal Vestry Votes for Moving

The decision to move Christ Episcopal Church from its present location at North Beach and Carroll Avenue to the rectory and school site at 912 South Beach was reached by the vestry last week after more than a week of deliberation over various relocation proposals.

Members of the congregation were notified of the decision and asked to submit in writing their objections or suggestions before the next meeting on the vestry on May 14.

A new building fund is to be established but it is not known when construction will be begun, according to Rev. Charles R. Johnson, rector. He said that the South Beach property was acquired in 1951 with the idea of eventually consolidating all operations of the church there.

Established in 1889 at Boardwalk Avenue and the Beach, the present structure was moved to its present location in 1894 and a new section added in 1938. Plans were considered by the vestry expansion at the present site, moving the existing building to South Beach, or erecting a new plant at South Beach.

he had been planning about a $20,000 expenditure on a trailer court but halted work after learning last week that the county intends to levy taxes on the mobile homes. He argued that such a step would be highly detrimental to trailers located here, while Lichten Raymond, surveyor, contended the county could gain far more through the spending of these transient residents than by taxing them.

At the board meeting last week Heitzmann had outlined, after consultation with the state tax commission, the procedure to see that all trailers in the county on Jan. 1, date on which assessments are made, have state tag under the motor vehicle law. Monday he elaborated that those parked in a yard and jacked up would be assessed as improvements to that property.

Raymond argued that the NASA construction forces would have two primary choices of location, St. Tammany Parish, La., or Hancock County, St. Tammany, he said, has a $10.75

Bids Sought On Road Bonds For May 16

Bids on the $200,000 bond issue to finance improvement of roads in Beat 5 are to be opened at 10 a. m. Wednesday, May 16, the board of supervisors agreed Monday, in authorizing advertisement of the sale.

Proposed relocation of the county airport at Jackson Ridge was discussed briefly with President R. G. Hubbard, Jr., instructed to get an opinion from the Gulfside Methodist Assembly on land required from it. Once that is in hand the Federal Aerolicense tag which is required when the trailer is traveling and does not have a current license plate from another state.

Here, he continued, trailers are taxed when they purchase a tag to travel and figure the plate and other taxes for a 50-foot unit, 1961 model ran $97.80 in the county and $124.61 if located within Bay St. Louis corporate limits.

Harrison County, Raymond said, has a big trailer population now but does not attempt to tax them since the vehicles would move into Jackson or Hancock Counties. One hundred trailers mean over half a million dollars in community spending, he

Echo Circulation Gain Shown by ABC Report

The Audit Bureau of Circulations this week notified the Sea Coast Echo that its reports of average paid circulation during the 24 months ending last Dec. 31 had been substantiated by the 31 had been substantiated by the audit undertaken early this year and fixed the average circulation at 2,341, excluding bulk, for the two-year period.

Confirmed as average paid circulation by quarters in 1960 was 2,060 for the first; 2,190 in the second; 2,268 in the third and 2,167 in the fourth. In 1961 it was 2,346 in the first; 2,532 in the second; 2,604 in the third and 2,541 in the fourth.

The adjusted figure for all of 1961 was listed by ABC at 2,511. For the edition of Dec. 7, 1961, on which the detailed check was run, the auditor found a total of 2,482. The auditor found 1,971 papers of the total paid circulation were sold in Hancock County with 1,280 in Bay St. Louis, and 255 on Bay rural routes. Sales in other Mississippi counties, including the Pascagoula and Picayune rural routes, were 143.

Initial audit of the Echo's circulation made when the newspaper joined ABC was of the fourth quarter of 1959 and showed an average paid, excluding bulk sales, of 1,961.

Publisher's statement for the first quarter of this year which has been sent to bureau headquarters in Chicago, Ill., shows an average paid of 2,586, subject to audit. The Echo is the only weekly newspaper in Mississippi now a member of ABC, an organization of advertisers designed to provide data on advertising income. The semi-weekly Pascagoula Chronicle, con to go daily, is the only other in the state in the weekly category.

Headaches Aired On North Central

An informal, candid discussion of various problems surrounding the educational process at Hancock North Central School occupied the bulk of the county board of education's session Saturday.

Trustees S. P. Powell of Beat 4 presented a resume of complaints in an effort to familiarize J. D. Penton, slated to assume superintendency of the school on July 1, with some of the matters which the board expects him to correct.

Powell then proposed a set of policies for consideration by his colleagues before introducing them as motions for adoption at the next board meeting. Attorney Walter J. Phillips suggested these measures be adopted as "standard operating procedures" insofar as putting them on the minutes was concerned.

Intendant K. G. McCarty, along with any other trustees who might wish to implement them, confer before the next session to get them in final form.

Penton inquired of the board its view on athletic clubs to help raise funds for various sports programs at the school after Attorney Stanford Morris of Panna Christian appeared in behalf of Mississippi School Supply Co. to seek payment of bills totaling $1,809.19 allegedly incurred between Dec. 1, 1960 and April 14, 1961, for football equipment.

The newly elected school head said he favored an athletic program but felt scholastic matters properly came first, adding that North Central would have no real interest in football until it can play some games at home.

Trustees Ed Ortte and Lugis Necaise said they saw nothing wrong with benefit programs for athletics while Powell contended they should be closely controlled and that if a sport can't support itself it should be stopped.

Ortte expressed the view that the football equipment bill might be met by dispensing with the sport for a year or two. "I've got nothing against football," he declared, "I just don't think we can afford it at this time. . . we've got to cut all expenses to the bone."

Phillips outlined to Morse prior discussion of the school supply firm's bill, noting that the school's athletic fund was virtually depleted and was not presently budgeted. He said the board expected to provide for payment over the next two years.

Superintendent McCarty noted the purchase, involving $1,300 in equipment and $500 in letters and jackets, had never been authorized by the school principal or himself, saying he thought the company and its salesman should take some part of the responsibility for such orders.

On Alton Keller's motion, seconded by Ortte, it was agreed to pay as much as possible on the account from the athletic fund.

President Charles Murphy left the session early and Powell as vice president presided over the remainder. Next session is set for 9:30 a. m. April 29.

New Plant Dedication Plans Set

Program for the dedication of the enameling division of Industrial Electric, Inc., which will take place at the Central Avenue plant at 11 a. m. May 2, has been completed by the VBI committee in cooperation with E. M. Brignac, president of the firm, and other officials.

The principal address will be delivered by Gov. Ross R. Barnett. Also speaking will be Joe Bullock, director of the Mississippi Agricultural and Industrial Board. Mayor John A. Scalfide will give the welcome.

Welcoming of guests and announcements will be made by Robert P. Guitbault, manager of the Industrial Enameling Division.

Rev. Kevin Reid, assistant pastor of Our Lady of the Gulf Catholic Church, is to deliver the invocation with Rev. Charles R. Johnson, rector of Christ Episcopal Church, offering the benediction.

A luncheon will follow at noon with plant tours to continue until 4 p. m.

J. Norton Haas, Jr., is chairman of the VBI committee which spearheaded the $300,000 BAWI bond issue referendum last summer to finance erection of the facility.

Crow's Electrical Appliance and Motor Repairs has been opened by Henry C. Crow, Jr., in his home at 605 Central Ave., Waveland. A former merchant seaman and resident of Lakeshore for three years, he is married to the former Diba O'Farrell of Lakeshore.

Kenneth Tegawa of Houston, Texas, drew up the plans for the church. The sanctuary dedicated Sunday is the first unit of what eventually will be the complete building, the size of which will depend on the needs of the community and the growth of the church. Gifts for

Observe Good Friday Easter Nears

Good Friday, which symbolizes the time of greatest solemnity during the Lenten season, has been proclaimed a day of prayer and general observance by Mayor John A. Scalfide as the city moves toward the Easter celebration. Special services marking the occasion have been planned in the Roman Catholic and Episcopal churches, City Hall and the Courthouse will be closed for Good Friday.

as will all schools in the area. An Easter sunrise service is planned by the Protestant churches of Waveland at 5:15 a. m. Sunday at Jackson Ridge when Rev. Doyle Larkin, Methodist pastor, will deliver the message.

A 6 a. m. communion service has been added to the regular Sunday schedule at Christ Episcopal Church in an effort to seat all members of the congregation. The new baptismal font, a gift to the church by the book of remembrance established by Mrs. Archibald I. Bruff in April, 1954, will be dedicated at the 11 a. m. service.

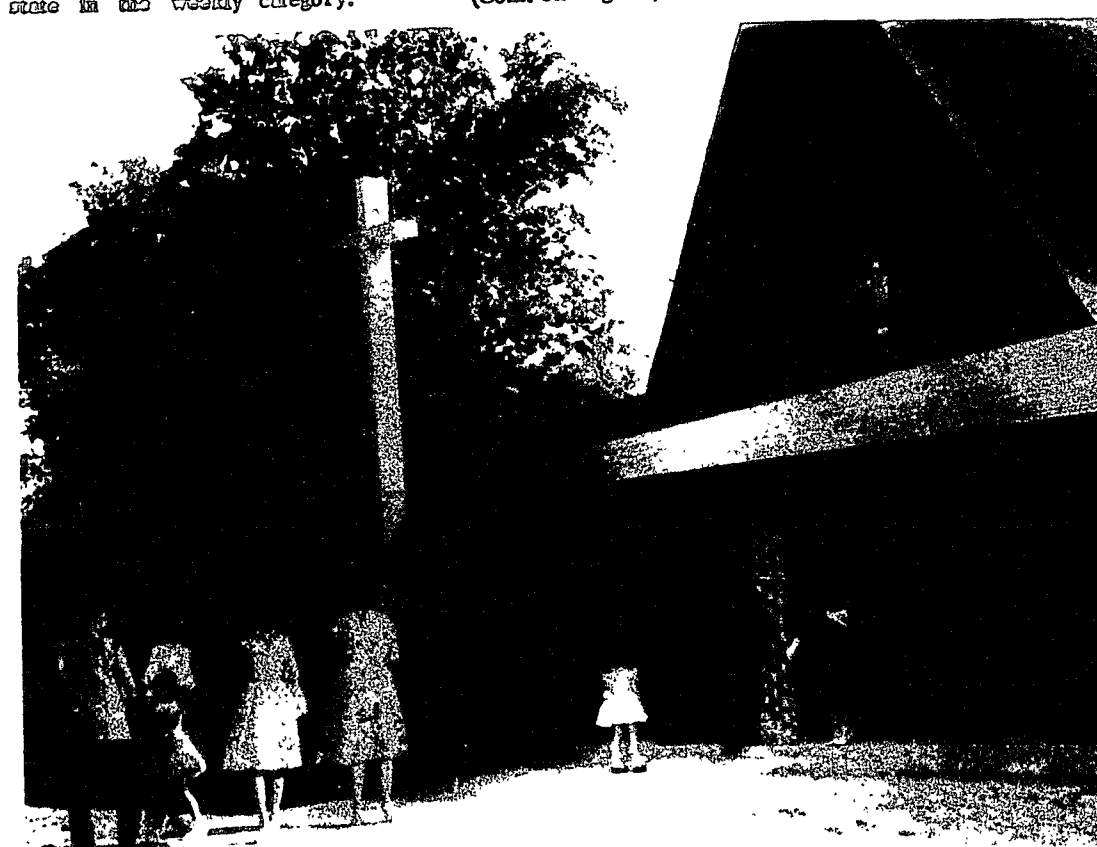

St. Clare's Catholic Church in Waveland will have Holy Thursday and Good Friday services at 7 p. m. while the choir from the Oblate Fathers Seminary at Pine Hills will sing for the midnight mass commemorating the Resurrection at 11 p. m. Saturday. Masses at Easter Sunday will be at 7 9 and 11 a. m. Confessions will be heard from 5 to 6 p. m. weekdays, 7 to 8 p. m. Saturday and at 3:30 p. m. Saturday at Claremont Harbor.

First Presbyterian Church will have a communion service at 11 a. m. Sunday and Main Street Methodist Church, now staging a week-long revival, will add a 6 a. m. service for Easter Sunday. Schedule of Our Lady of the Gulf Parish was listed in last week's Echo.

St. Joseph Academy, Our Lady of the Gulf School and St. Stanislaus College dismissed classes at noon Wednesday for the Easter season, the former two reopening Tuesday and the latter Wednesday. The public schools and Christ Episcopal Day School have only Good Friday off.

Henry Otis of Logtown, Methodist lay speaker, will conduct special Easter services at 9:45 a. m. Sunday at McNeill Methodist Church.

FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH IS DEDICATED SUNDAY

Dedication Held Sunday At Presbyterian Church

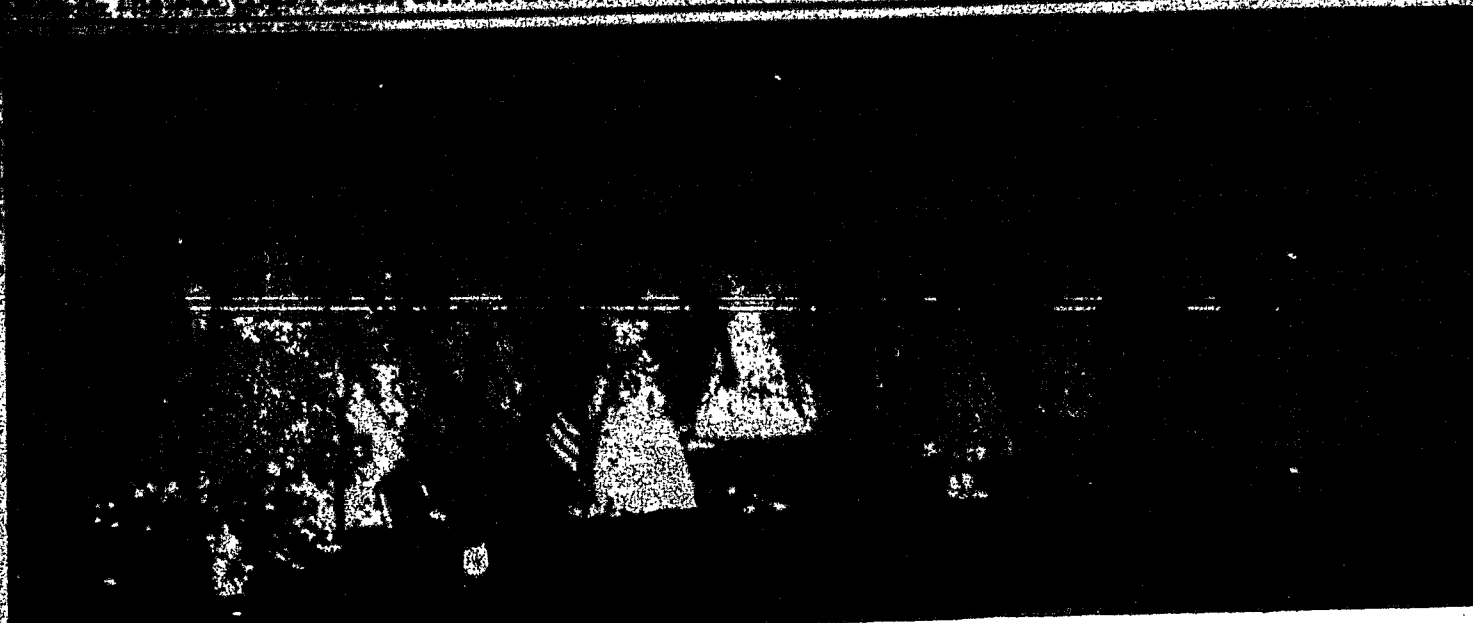

Rev. W. J. Stanway, pastor of First Presbyterian Church in Hattiesburg, delivered the sermon Sunday afternoon at the dedication and consecration service of the new First Presbyterian Church on Ulman Avenue. His topic was The Church of the Living God.

An overflow congregation witnessed the services in the recently-completed church. Those attending packed the church, churchyard, and fellowship hall.

Rev. E. A. Lindsey, pastor of the local church, gave the opening prayer, and Dr. Claude H. Pritchard of Atlanta, secretary of home missions for the Presbyterian Church, also delivered a prayer, following a solo by Mrs. Camille Schaefer, Bless This House. Refreshments were served in the fellowship hall following the services.

Kenneth Tegawa of Houston, Texas, drew up the plans for the church. The sanctuary dedicated Sunday is the first unit of what eventually will be the complete building, the size of which will depend on the needs of the community and the growth of the church. Gifts for

Wish to thank each and every one who helped and those who attended and spent their hard earned cash.

Mrs. Myra Ann Sager left Wednesday for Kingston, N. Y., where she will spend two weeks visiting her brother, Earl Sager, who is attending the Kingston L.I.M. School. The children, Donald, Douglas and Deanna stayed home with grandma and grandpa Seal.

There will be a bake sale this Easter Sunday in the White House to help Virginia Thomas who is a candidate for S.J.A. May festival queen.

One will wish to Johnny Brink who is a patient in U. S. Public Service Hospital in New Orleans where he is recovering from major surgery.

Upon a motion by Mr. Daspt and approved unanimously by the members present, Mrs. Louis Garcia was reelected as president of the C-L Youth Center, Mrs. Gloria Peterson, vice president and Joseph Goodloe, treasurer. Mrs. Elaine Steimle was elected secretary for her first term at the adult meeting Friday evening.

Heardest congratulations to Mrs. Bee Maurigi, former nurse aide at Hancock General who has completed her practical nurse training course at Gulfport Memorial Hospital, and is now eligible to take the State Board Examination in Jackson. She will return soon to Hancock General not as an aide but as a licensed practical nurse. What makes this story different is the fact that Mrs. Maurigi did all this after all her children were grown, which proves we are never too old to learn.

The lilies in the yard of Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Asber are in full bloom, and a beautiful sight to behold. Mrs. Asber, keeps the Lakeshore Methodist Church in fresh flowers for every service, the year round, and does all the gardening herself.

Don't forget the 50th anniversary celebration for Mr. and Mrs. Ory Ladner given by their children this coming Easter Sunday starting at 2 p.m. in St. John's Catholic Church, then on to the civic hall.

My neighbor, Jim Croney, is in San Francisco visiting his former home.

Teachers Elected For County Schools

Teachers for the 1962-63 term in the three schools of the county system were approved by the county board of education Saturday on the recommendation of their principals.

Trustee Ed Ortle of Beat 5 moved from approval of the list and Alton Keller seconded it after being assured that those faculty members without degrees or needing further work to keep up their certificates planned to take summer work.

County Superintendent K. G. McCarty said afterwards that the only omissions from those currently employed were of teachers who had said they did not expect to return. Luke Caruso is leaving Gulfview School to join the Bay St. Louis system; James Ladner will leave North Central for a post elsewhere and N. M. Miller has indicated the condition of the Kiln Road will govern his future plans. E. Howard of the Logtown faculty plans to go to another post and the vacancy will not be filled since some 40 students will not return to that school in the fall as a result of the NASA test site, the superintendent reported.

Reelected to Logtown School on the recommendation of Principal Oscar Brendale were Jacqueline Hoyer, Rosalie Crawford, Mabel K. Smith, Eunice Casanova and Olivia Keller; the Gulfview roster, proposed by Principal Oren Seal, lists Gertrude Perkins, Margaret Varnell, Mrs. K. G. McCarty with William Floyd as a new member.

North Central recommendations were made by Leo Rouce, outgoing superintendent; J. D. Penton, his successor, and High School Principal J. C. Harrell. Listed were Mr. and Mrs. Harrell, Claude Renfro, Billy Sills, Lawrence Carrington, Mary Payne, Mrs. Clara Usher, Louis Brooks, Mrs. G. S. Kennedy, Mrs. Linda Bourgeois, D. J. Martin, Carl Moran, Taft Shaw, Elvin Lee, Clements Ladner, Doc Thigpen, Twillpha Cuevas, Geneva Moran, Mrs. Bernada Arce-mant, Mrs. Cecil Ladner, Mrs. Marjorie Cuevas, Myrtle Sauter, Iva Mae Moore and Yvonne Les Thrash.

Can You Pass This Home Owners Quiz?

1. How much did you pay for your home?

2. How much is your home worth today?

Chances are you hesitated on the second question. Nine out of ten people don't know how much their home is worth. And if you guessed, you probably underestimated. Inflation and climbing construction costs over the last ten years have resulted in drastic changes in property valuation.

Many homes have almost doubled in replacement value. If you're not sure, it's likely that you haven't reviewed your insurance recently in the light of current costs. In case of fire, storm or other serious destruction, you stand to lose more than you realize.

Don't be in the dark. Let me tell you what your home is worth right now. There's absolutely no cost obligation on your part. Just call HO 7-4691 or 7-7211 I'll be glad to help you get the right answer.

VIPP Very Interesting People and Places Homesites

Ancestral Acres, the lovely home of the Old Morans on Lower Bay Road, is on acreage handed down to him from his ancestors through four or five generations. It is beautifully wooded naturally landscaped with blooming wild trees and shrubs as well as having many cultivated ones around the premises. The huge two-block-long hedge of azaleas and bridal wreath paralleling the driveway, is worth driving miles to see in the spring. They have a magnificent oak near the house that for diameter and circumference would challenge any in Mississippi.

Shutter Bugs

The joint hobby of the Morans is taking long trips during the summer and bringing films in color back to share with friends at home. They recently returned from a trip to Pasadena, Calif., where they went to visit Mrs. Moran's only uncle, Eugene B. Henry, who is ill, and while there renewed relations with cousins, there on the same mission whom they had not seen in 18 or 20 years. While there they were able to see the Rose Parade, and captured its beauty and color on film, to enjoy through the years.

They returned through southern Arizona, touring Tombstone, where Irene, whose hobby is designing, dressing and collecting dolls, added Wyatt Earp and Nellie Cassidy. They read and recorded on film many of the headstones in Boot Hill Cemetery and noted most of them were dated 1881.

Tombstone was given its name by Ed Scheffler who went west in search of silver and gold and was told he would find nothing but his own tombstone, being sure he would be killed by the Indians.

They Remodeled

Seldom does a remodeling undertaking result in such a lovely and livable home as that of Capt. and Mrs. William John of So. Beach Blvd., who a few years ago turned one of those four-square frame jobs with ventilating cupola atop, into one as modern and up-to-date as tomorrow.

By incorporating the L-shape screen porch into the house proper they gained a dining area and foyer which lend magnificent proportions to the living room whose chief focal point is a beautiful fireplace over which hangs a life-size oil portrait of the captain's wife, Beth, by Nell Pomeroy O'Brien of N.O., who not only caught a perfect likeness but gave it a dimension rarely obtained by a portrait painter.

The blond brick facade, and den, are new. The captain's chair and table are before the many mullioned picture window that he may gaze at his favorite seascape—the water and the sky.

The kitchen, tile baths and utility sections are also modernized in the latest fashions—it's a beautiful job, well done. The Johns love their beach home and discredit as totally unfounded the rumor that they will build on the property recently purchased in Grosvenor Place, having bought for investment only with faith in the future. There is another happy retirement. Capt. John was master of the Comessa out of N.O. for many years.

County Agent Notes

HOME GARDENING

Good Friday (April 20 this year) has long been the time to plant beans — according to the old folks. And lots of times the old folks know what they are talking about!

Plant all kinds of beans in your home garden — bush butter beans, pole butter beans, speckled butterbeans, bush and pole snapbeans. Plant them at different times so that you will have a supply coming along all the time. Protect the beans from bugs! Pick them closely to prevent overmaturity. You'll be glad you did. They are mighty good eating!

Some other April jobs include planting corn, field peas, cucumbers, squash and the setting of tomatoes and peppers. Plant snapbeans for crowns next year.

CLOVER GRAZING

Grazing crimson and white clover heavily. It will pay you to cross fence and graze one field down, then move to another field and let the grazed down one come back.

Rye grass in clover or alone gives excellent grazing. Handle Department for authority to erect buffer site signs on highway right of way leading into the area. The board of supervisors already has granted this permission on county roads.

It just like you do clover grazing — graze it down and give it a rest.

STOCK-FEEDER SALE

Don't forget the State Stock-Feeder Calf Show and Sale in Jackson Aug. 10-11.

This special show and sale is a good chance to show cattle feeders in the Midwest of the volume and quality of good cattle we can supply.

The show and sale is several months away, but it is now time to begin selecting calves for it. June 1st is the deadline for entering calves.

Representatives of the Gulf Coast Sunday School Conference, a Negro group, inquired about purchasing or leasing a portion of the 16th Section tract at Jackson Ridge for construction of an educational building but was told this land cannot be disposed of. Attorney Lucien M. Gex observed that sales prohibition on 16th Section land is so closely restricted that even the Army Corps of Engineers had concluded it could not get clear title to the tract in the NASA test site in the county.

Presbyterians...

Among the many coming from the New Orleans area and along the coast for the service were the pastor's son, Dr. E. S. Lindsey and family and Mr. and Mrs. Myron Turfitt of New Orleans.

Home Agent Notes

MARCIA HUGHES

Everything's easier if you get it right the first time. So try to make your child begin school with the best.

He starts school with a clean, it is twice as hard for him to adjust to school. And starting to school or any new experience takes some adjustment.

Start your Johnny and Mary to school with a complete examination by your doctor. If he finds defects, talk with him about the best way for you to help correct defects or deficiencies. By having the examination now, there will be time to have corrections made before school starts.

Next, have your dentist go over your child's teeth. Remember for a well-shaped mouth and healthy permanent teeth, take care of "baby teeth."

Before entering school, your child should be adequately immunized against smallpox, diphtheria, tetanus and polio. Check with your doctor or health department. Booster shots may be needed.

Don't forget, the child entering school or the first time will need a copy of his birth certificate. You can obtain this through your local health department.

Check in your town. If they are holding pre-school conferences, attend so your child will be ready when school starts next fall.

Frozen Food Containers... With wide top openings make it easier to remove the food before it is thawed completely.

HOLD THAT WEIGHT
What a feeling of accomplishment when you step on the scales and watch the needle settle down at a place that shows you've lost pounds! Those pounds you've been counting calories and cutting down on servings to lose.

And then a few weeks or a month later, where are you? The scales say right back where you started!

What happened? You went back to your old habits of too much to eat and too little exercise. The way to keep those pounds off, is to follow the same plan that you followed to reduce. You can't suddenly go back to your old calorie-laden diet.

You may ease up a little on your diet, but increase serving cautiously. And always keep an eye on the scales.

Leo Enters Small Arms Match Tests
Army Sgt. Garland M. Leo, 27, whose mother, Mrs. Ethel Leo, lives on Rt. 3, Piquette, participated in the U. S. Army Europe (USAREUR) Small Arms Matches in Grafenwohr, Germany, which were scheduled to end April 5.

Winners of these rifle and pistol matches, which began March 23, will represent USAREUR in the All-Army Championship Matches at Fort Benning, Ga., early this summer.

Leo, a squad leader in Headquarters Co. of the 24th Infantry Division's Marmashup unit, entered the Army in 1949. The sergeant's wife, Evelyn, is with him in Germany.

Next meeting will be April 17 at the Aime home with Mrs. Aime in charge of the program.

Harry Hears... As the Season Starts Out

After the first week of major league baseball play, the National League has the same "anybody could win it" look as is customary and the American League looks very much like Yankee-owned property. Ralph Terry of New York and Art Mahaffey of Philadelphia became the first big-league pitchers to win two games, and established stars like Mickey Mantle, Stan Musial and Norm Cash were every bit as good as in the past.

Pittsburgh and St. Louis captured early leads in the National League. Through Monday, the Pirates boasted a 5-0 record while the Redbirds claimed a 4-0 slate. San Francisco also looked very impressive with a 6-1 record. Houston had surprised many by winning their first three and compiling a 3-2 mark. The Phils were ahead of .500 percentage, and the Cubs and New York Mets combined had an 8-10 record, not unusual.

Milwaukee, our choice to win the flag, had a 1-6 record through Monday but the Braves had not played any of the weaker clubs and we still feel they'll be in the thick of the pennant fight. Milwaukee will have to get better second-line pitching to back up Warren Spahn and Lew Burdette if they're to win, however.

Cardinals Could Be Surprise

St. Louis could be the big surprise of the National League. The Cardinals have the pitching and the hitting, and if they put it together, watch out! Ernie Broglio won 21 games two years ago, compiling the best winning percentage in the majors. Last year, the big Card right-hander was far from a good pitcher, but looked sharp in pitching without relief ball Monday for 8 1/3 innings to win his first game of the season. Larry Jackson is a proven good hurler; Curt Simmons, a lefty, adds experience as well as performance to the staff, and Ray Sadecki, Bob Gibson, and rookie Ray Washburn all are fine young moundmen. Lindy McDaniel is the best relief pitcher in the game, in our opinion, and he can not only pitch for short spans but can go seven or eight innings. First baseman Bill White, third baseman Ken Boyer, and catcher Carl Sawatski are among the best hitters in the league, and catcher Carl Sawatski is right-hand batting. Fielding-wise, second baseman Julian Javier and shortstop Julio Gotay form a good double play combination, and Boyer, at third, is one of the top infielders in the game.

One reason we believe the Cards will be in the race is because of their hitting pitching. St. Louis had about three, maybe four, pitchers last year to hit .300 over the entire season and it is a big asset to a team to have good hitting pitchers. How many times do pitchers strike out in the middle of a big rally?

That Old Yankee Power

In the American League, New York and Detroit played the first two of their 18 games with each other last weekend and the only thing decided was that the Yanks displayed more power. New York won an 11-5 decision Saturday afternoon after the Tigers had won 5-3 the night before.

Roger Maris appeared a little off form in the early going—we really do not believe his 1962 season will come close to matching his '61 output. Mickey Mantle, who is probably more valuable to the Yankees than Maris, still has that knack of doing the right thing at the right time. In Saturday's win over Detroit, Mickey was 2-2 and was on base all five times he went up to the plate. His hits both came in key situations—he drove in a pair of runs—and the most important thing he did all day was make a running shoestring catch of a line drive by Tiger shortstop Chico Fernandez with the bases loaded and one out in the seventh inning. His loss from the outfield after the catch to shortstop Tom Tresh easily doubled a surprised Detroit baserunner.

The Yankees should win but we can't believe they will. Detroit has plenty of good pitching and a more solid team than most people realize. The Tigers will give 'em a fight.

Among the new faces racing mention, Tresh was doing an adequate job at shortstop for the Yanks in place of veteran Tony Kubek, lost to military service. Rich Rollins, at third base for the Minnesota Twins, led the American League through Monday in home runs (three) and runs batted in (eight), and sported a .500 batting average. And a 42-year-old new face, Diomedes Olivo, in his first major league season, looked like a good relief pitcher for Pittsburgh.

A Man Named Baylor

Two or three months ago we said we thought Bob Pettit of St. Louis was the best basketball player in the world. We must, however, admit that a young man named Elgin Baylor is just as good as the Hawks' superstar.

Baylor is the chief reason the Los Angeles Lakers went as far as they did this season in the National Basketball Assn. playoffs. After missing all but a small portion of the last half of the regular season, Baylor came on to lead the Lakers into the finals of the NBA playoffs. As we write, L.A. and the Boston Celtics are tied at three games apiece in their best-of-seven series for the league title, but the final game was played last night in Boston. Baylor scored 61 points Saturday night in Boston to give the Lakers a 126-121 win over the Celtics and a short-lived 3-2 lead in the series. Sure, Wilt Chamberlain scored 100 points in a game, but that was in regular league play and the game didn't mean much. In Saturday night's game, thousands of dollars were at stake, and Baylor was playing against one of the best teams in the history of basketball.

Unless the Celtics—the incomparable Celtics—come up with a new player before next season, they're going to fall just like the St. Louis Hawks did this year. Boston no longer has the drive they used to. Court leader Bob Cousy is getting old. Leading scorer Tommy Heinsohn doesn't seem to have that old touch with his hooks and line-drive jump shots. The Celts were favored to win last night but one year from now, we'll bet they won't be.

Sports stars of the week—Curtis Matherne, freshman left-hander of the St. Stanislaus baseball team, pitched a no-hitter as the Rocks won a 6-3 victory over St. John's of Gulfport Friday. Matherne's teammates made seven errors, helping to account for the runs for St. John's. Kenny Lane, Michigan southpaw, scored a unanimous decision over Luis Molina in a 10-round boxing match Saturday night. Lane once fought for the lightweight title; Herb Elliott, of Australia, perhaps the greatest miler the track world has ever known, announced his retirement from international competition.

Little League Aides Told, Need Sponsors

Maurice Mauritz has been temporarily placed in charge of the Bay St. Louis Little League, it was announced this week. It is hoped a check for the league can be found by June 1. Edmund Matherne and Max Casselton will assist Mauritz with the group, with the start of the season. Mrs. Thelma Tinsley, chairman of the Little League Auxiliary, announced that 47 Little League teams will be in the area this year. The only Little League team in the area last year was the Bay St. Louis team.

Rock Thinclads Run 2nd

St. Stanislaus thinclads lost to a good Biloxi squad Saturday afternoon, and finished a close second in a triangular track meet with Ocean Springs and Notre Dame last Thursday. Both meets were staged in Biloxi.

Colden Jones showed his usual good sprinting form for the Rockchaws, under Coach Billy Rhodes, in Saturday's meet which saw Biloxi outscore the locals 69-44. Jones was the only Rock double winner, taking first in the 100-yard dash with a 10.3 clocking and in the 440-yard run with a 52.7. Phil and Paul Fasullo finished 1-2 for the Rocks in the 220-yard dash, Waldo Caceres tied for first in the 880-yard run, and all three Rockchaw relay teams, the 440-yard, 880-yard, and mile relay squads, captured first.

In a junior high meet, Biloxi's Michel won first place among five teams. The only first place winner for Stanislaus was Henry Klingman, who ran the 880 in 2:13.7.

Thursday, SSC lost 55 1/2-53 to Ocean Springs with Notre Dame finishing third scoring 43 1/2 points. Jones was the star of the meet, scoring three first places and helping the 880-yard relay team to victory. Jones ran the 100 in 10.3, the 220 in 24.1, and the 440 in 57.0. Waldo Caceres won the 880 yard run, being timed in 2:12.4. Henry Klingman was victorious in the mile run in 3:11.2, and Larry Fee put the shot 43' 7 1/4" for first in that event.

Ocean Springs upset the strong 440-yard and mile relay teams of Stanislaus, but the Rocks' team of Jones, Fasullo, Fasullo, and Caceres won in the 880-yard relay. The Rockchaws claimed a majority of first places, but didn't pile up as many seconds and thirds as the Greyhounds.

Donald Everett Comes Through

Tigers Edge Pass In Track Event

Coming from far behind in the final 100 yards, Bay High's Donald Everett, anchor man of the Tiger mile relay team, edged his opponent by inches at the wire in the final event of the day to give Bay High a 58-57 day to give Bay High a 58-57 track and field victory over Pass Christian Thursday at St. Stanislaus Stadium.

Tiger Billy Pahlman had kept his team in contention by winning two first places, taking first in the discus with a heave of 96' 3" and the shotput, 37' 11". Teddo Thomas and Davey Smith high jumped 5' 1" to tie for first in that event, and Everett won in the 440-yard run, lapping the field in 57.5. The Tigers, under Coach Wilmer Seymour, were first in only five of 13 events, but piled up most of the seconds and thirds to gain the win.

Preceding the thrilling final race, Bay High's thinclads had fallen seven points behind only to score first and second place in the high jump, second in the 220 yard dash, and first and third in the mile relay.

High's David Foy was the chief reason for his team's building up a lead, winning the 220 yard dash, broad jump, and pole vault, soaring 10 ft. 10 1/4 inches in the latter event, probably the highest vault of the year on the coast.

In the mile relay, Bay High's team of Davey Smith, Billy Thomas, Frank Miller, and Everett, fell behind and appeared hopelessly beaten until Everett turned on the gas to win in almost unbelievable fashion. The win tied the score, and anchor man J. P. Compreta of the second Tiger relay team came home seconds later in third place to give the Tigers their first track and field win of the year in two meets.

Others who scored points for Bay High included: Al Watts, third in 100-yard dash; Lonnie Schultz, third in mile run; Compreta, third in 440-yard run; Teddo Thomas, second in 880-yard run; and 220-yard dash Jimmy Giametta, second in shotput (37'6"); Charles Breland, second in discus (94'1"); and Johnny Kramer and Larry Johnson, tie for second in pole vault; and the Tiger 440 and 880-yard

CYPREX® OUTSTANDING NEW SCAB CONTROL FOR PECANS

Cyprex—the remarkable new fungicide for pecan scab—has licked the scab problem wherever it has been used

Scab-free cluster at left was protected with CYPREX. Scabby cluster of nuts was brought from unsprayed tree for comparison.

How Cyprex keeps yields up

- CYPREX keeps scab from attacking young nuts; keeps them from falling off.
- CYPREX stops scab from attacking leaves, preserves leaves for food manufacture and maximum yields. CYPREX prevents scab from defoliating trees.
- CYPREX prevents late scab attacks which can prevent nuts from filling out.

How to use Cyprex

Use 1/2 to 1 pound of CYPREX per 100 gallons of water. The number of applications varies from 2 to 6 according to weather and the amount of scab present.

Spray from first show of leaves until shuck fall. Your County Agent can help you work out a pecan scab control program with CYPREX that fits your grove and conditions.

American Cyanamid Company, Agricultural Division, Princeton, New Jersey. CYPREX is an American Cyanamid Company's trademark for its fungicide.

The label instructions on Cyanamid products, and on products containing Cyanamid ingredients, are the result of years of research and have been accepted by Federal and State Governments. Always read the labels and carefully follow their directions for use.

Red Cross Swim Classes Scheduled

Registration is now under way for the summer swimming classes of the Red Cross, Mrs. P. E. Porter, Jr., water safety chairman for the local chapter, announced this week.

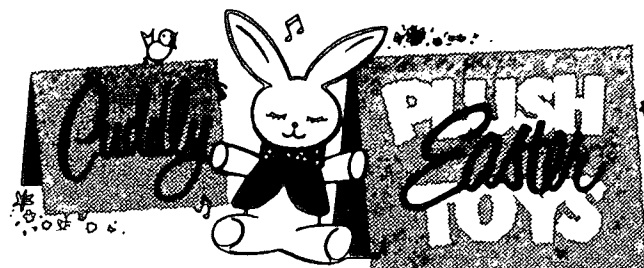

The registration forms were distributed in the schools Monday and are to be turned in this coming Monday in the public schools and on Tuesday in the church schools.
